

Survey parents now

---

Using one of two surveys to learn what will make parents happier

As I mentioned at Principals' Council, I appreciate your feedback that the list of marketing activities I've given you is becoming daunting. So, as I said then, the most important thing you can do between now and the end of school is to learn what makes your parents happy, and what it would take to make them gloriously happier.